

Mark Cammock

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio where I spent most of my life until my wife and I moved to Baltimore in 2017.

Retired in 2017 after spending 45 years in industrial purchasing and supply logistics — the last 16 years of my career employed by the Philips Healthcare division of Royal Philips.

Have a bachelors in Business Administration from Miami University.

Member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Spent 6 years in the Ohio National Guard, 107th Armored Cavalry, D company.

Love all sports, and participated in most, especially baseball. I am a runner when my knee lets me. Classical music enthusiast, but I enjoy all music.

I have a wonderful son and three stepchildren all very grown up.
